MURPHY, the Jeweler.

By far the most clever of all vaudeville—if vaudeville it can be called—was the performance at the Opera-house last evening of the magician, Lafayette, and his company. The scenic display was far ahead of the average good shows, while the specialties which made up the production were performed by unmistakable artists. While the members of his company were of the best interest centered in Lafayette himself, and he was all that could be desired. His imitations of famous bandmasters were rich and in this line of his work alone he won the favor of his big audience. He carried a splendid band with his organization and there is not a dull moment in all his evening's entertainment.

CONWAY—OSBORN.

Mr. W. F. Conway, 46 years old, of Cynthiana, one of Uncle Sam's Revenue Agents, and Miss Elizabeth C. Osborn, 30 years old, of South Ripley, were married yesterday evening at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Osborn is one of Mason's fair and worthy daughters.

ELECTION HELD

New Officers Chosen for the Maysville Cemetery Company

At the fifty-sixth annual election of the Maysville Cemetery Company held in the law office of Sallee & Slattery Tuesday afternoon the following officers were elected to serve the current year—

President—J. James Wood.
Vice-President—Henry L. Newell.
Treasurer—Thomas R. Phister.
Secretary—Clarence L. Sallee.
Superintendent—W. D. Bradford.
Directors—J. H. Pecor, A. R. Glascock, J. James Wood, J. M. Lane, James H. Hall, Clarence L. Sallee, Henry L. Newell, Thomas R. Phister, Harry H. Barkley and W. E. Stallcup.

The Maysville Cemetery Company was incorporated February 23d, 1849, by the following: John Armstrong, John B. McIlvaine, Nathaniel D. Hunter, William S. Allen, Richard Collins, Richard H. Stanton, Andrew M. January, Thomas Y. Payne, Francis T. Hord and Joseph Brodick, all—with the possible exception of Mr. Brodick—having long since been laid to rest in the beautiful ground that was their care and pride in life. They were all distinguished citizens in their day; the impress of those men is with us now. Their memory is held as a sacred heritage in this community and will continue to be venerated for generations to come.

It will perhaps startle you to be informed that sleeping in the lovely "City of the Dead" the number is larger than that of the population of this city. The last Government Census gave Maysville a citizenship of 6,500; the records of the two Cemeteries place the number buried in the hallowed grounds at 8,500. Two thousand more than the living souls in the community. Did you ever think of it?

$5,000 SUIT

A Wife Sues for Alienating the Affections of Her Husband

Mrs. Minnie M. Davenport has filed suit in the Mason Circuit Court against James Davenport and his wife, Carrie, in the sum of $5,000 for alienating the affections of her husband, George Davenport.

The petitioner states that in September, 1900, she was united in marriage to her husband, son of defendants, and from the date of her marriage until the winter of 1902-3 they lived happily together and were getting along nicely as husband and wife, and life with him was pleasurable and joyous.

She further states that in the months of December, 1902, and January, 1903, there was a change in her husband's demeanor—from a kind and affectionate husband he became cruel and unkind,—notwithstanding there was no cause on her part for such conduct.

She recites further and affirms that this change was the result of the influence of James and Carrie Davenport, who basely and falsely maligned her character, and by such talk and persuasion poisoned the mind of her husband, and finally caused him to abandon her and take up his abode with his parents, whom she charges are the cause of all her domestic troubles, and for which she prays damages in the sum of $5,000.

We are just through invoicing. We find that we have of some lots too many and of others merely a few. Both lots want to be sold and sold "quickly." Among them are a limited number of Men's and Young Men's Suits and Overcoats made by the well-known-to-you manufacturers Stein-Bloch, L. Adler Bros. & Co. and Garson-Meyer & Co. Most of these Suits and Overcoats are of the $20, $22.50 and $25 quality. See them in our East window and note the prices on them. The "alert" buyer, if he can find his size, will secure "good stuff" for LITTLE MONEY. DON'T FORGET TO ASK FOR GLOBE STAMPS.

MONEY SAVING MATTINGS

You are entirely wrong if you think Mappings are sold only during the summer. We sell them all the year round. Of course they go faster in warm weather. However the winter volume of business is not insignificant.

Today we offer some attractive Matting Remnants, 5 to 18 yards in a piece. The best patterns are most quickly sold down to short lengths so you will find the prettiest designs in these small lots. Prices are reduced as follows:
35c Linen Chain Mappings 20c.
25c Linen Chain Mappings 15c.

Unprecedented Reductions.

The demand for Women's Tailor-made Suits was never so large and continuous right through the winter as it has been this season. So our stock has been kept full long after it would ordinarily have been depleted. These hurry-up prices may seem almost unbelievable but they are absolute statements of original prices.

The extra session of the Kentucky Legislature convened this morning at Frankfort.

The heavy snow and sleet Tuesday night had Beecher Holiday and his streetcar gang working all night in order to keep the car track in condition for the accommodation of the traveling public next day. Beecher declares it was the most disagreeable night he ever spent.

BUSTER BROWN.

There are some fifty people engaged in the representation of Melville B. Raymond's "Buster Brown," the Richard F. Outcalt creation in the funny pages of The New York Herald, which comes to the Washington Opera-house on Friday night. The most prominent members of the company are Master Giovanni as Buster, Jack Bell as Tige, the dog, Frank Christie, Joseph T. Kelley, Bert Jordan, May Walsh, Caroline Kelly McCord, Nan Dodson, Mamie Goodrich, Amelia Baird and Rose Crouch, beside a chorus, a ballet and a number of beautiful girls, whose exquisite modern costumes have been made by Wanamaker's New York house. Other costumes, including those for a bathing ballet, have been made by Eaves. This ballet has a very novel idea, the dresses illustrating the fashions and regulations of various bathing resorts. The scenery is elaborate and requires a sixty-foot car for its transportation. Seats now on sale at Ray's.

HELPING THE POOR

Wants of the Worthy Supplied By a Charitable Woman

A real Christian and charitable lady placed a sum of money in the hands of Mr. Harry B. Owens to be expended in buying food, fuel and raiment for the needy poor in the city.

Mr. Owens being a novice as to how, where and when to dispense charity, called on Mayor Stallcup for advice.

Mr. Robert Frost was suggested as the most likely person in an emergency of this kind, and together Harry and Robert started for the West End on a slumming expedition, and what the philanthropic young merchant saw in his rounds will not soon vanish from his memory. One house entered consisted of a husband, wife and six children.

Squalor and want were in evidence at every turn—the children were barefoot, there was nothing to eat and no fuel to burn.

When asked as to his needs the man was rather stilted, and with some spirit replied—"I don't want nothing. If I had work I could provide for my own family."

His name was taken, however, and their needs were supplied.

Another was the home of Richard Platt, the man who broke his leg by stepping off the C. and O. Short street bridge.

Mr. Frost asked Richard what he wanted and by the appearance of his surroundings his answer was truthful as well as philosophical, when he answered—

"I need everything."

And really he spoke the truth. His wife, who earns $3 per week, was compelled to give up her work in order to attend her husband.

This family's wants were supplied.

And thus it went until the gamut was run. Many families were visited and in each instance received help.

Mr. Owens is now in shape, after his experience, to get up in a class meeting and tell the good brothers and sisters about the heathen land and people right here in our own midst.

Harry is now a firm believer in home missions, —he will give foreign missions the go-by hereafter.

Wallace Potts, colored, who murdered Amelia Lewis at Flemingsburg a few weeks ago, had his case continued in the Fleming Circuit Court.

A company of capitalists, composed of J. C. C. Mayo, Watson Kent Pritchard and others, have taken options on 3,000 shares of fire clay land in Carter county. About $35,000 is involved in the deal. Developments will begin at once.

The Ice King is again master of the situation.

A number of towboats are laid up at Moscow.

The Virginia is in winter quarters in the East end of the Queen City harbor.

The Ohio river is falling from Pittsburgh to below Maysville. All dams have been lowered in the Kanawha.

The heavy ice has forced all the floating craft to the bank, and rivermen now fear another freeze-up.

The ferryboat Ollie Neville, which sank at Ripley a few days ago, is in an exceedingly bad condition if the ice continues for awhile.

The Kentucky river is reported to be frozen from its mouth, at Carrollton, to Frankfort. Several boats which sought refuge there have been forced to plow through the ice and go farther South.

The Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company recently won a suit in Court, the facts of which are interesting to owners. While en route to New Orleans some time ago a deck hand jumped one of their boats at Memphis, Tenn. He sued the owners for his wages. The Court decided in favor of the owners and the deckhand lost all that was due him because he failed to make the trip. The case also brought out the fact that when a deckhand "jumps" a boat he lays himself liable to prosecution for breach of contract.

MANY THANKS

To the people of Maysville and surrounding country for their kindness in attending to me such a liberal share of their patronage during the year just closed, which I am proud to say has been the most successful of my business life in Maysville. I assure all that I appreciate this kindness, towards me to the fullest extent, and promise that I will make renewed efforts to serve them more faithfully and satisfactorily, if possible, during the year just begun. While my sales have been unusually large, I keep a close watch on my business, and at all times my stock will be found to be full and complete and of the very best the markets afford. My last shipment of those FANCY NEW CROP MOLASSES direct from the plantation just received. See the goods and get my prices before buying; I can please in both. FANCY FALL CATCH MACKEREL just received from Boston. No finer ever offered, and guaranteed full weight packages. Although coffee has advanced continuously for some time I am still in position, because of my very heavy purchases long ago of GREEN COFFEES, to sell at old prices; and you will find my 15c, 20c and 25c Coffees very much superior to any sold in Maysville, even at much higher prices. All Kinds of Music at the Sixth Annual Tobacco Fair

The Managers of the Sixth Annual Tobacco Fair have engaged the Augusta Band of about fifteen men, the Carlisle Band of ten men, the Vanceburg Band of fifteen men.

Besides these there will be a "surprise band" on the streets of Maysville that day.

It will certainly be a day of pleasure for the lovers of good music.

A band contest will take place at the concert at the Opera-house on the morning of the Fair.

Great crowds are coming from Louisville, Cincinnati, Augusta, Vanceburg, Carlisle, and in fact from all the surrounding country. Get ready with your exhibits.

Colorado's gold statistics for the first six months of the current year show tonnage of 332,300, with a valuation of $10,522,800. Should there be no decrease in the production for the ensuing half year, Colorado's total output of gold for 1904 will be about $22,509,000.

Mrs. T. J. Murphy entertained with dinch last Friday evening in honor of her brother, Mr. Everett Lively of Charleston, W. Va. Quite a pleasant time was spent. Dainty refreshments were served. The table was most prettily decorated, and much credit is due Mrs. Murphy for the manner in which she entertained.
